THE TEXAS HORNS/Get Here Quick:

Memphis, Macon, Muscle Shoals, Austin--it's all here on the long overdue debut by these stellar accompanists. Helped out by about every muso that's ever thought about Texas, it doesn't get anymore heartfelt or ballsy than what's going on here. The kind of gritty, greasy funky soul driven stuff you can really sink your teeth into, it may not make you feel like a grown up to listen to it but you really have to be a grown up to appreciate it. Killer stuff that's really needed right now.
